

This proposal would not only put us out of business, it would seriously infringe upon the rights of many people who believe in freedom of speech. While a minority of people and stations are stepping over the line, to potentially censor all others through this indirect intimidation is wrong. Government does have a responsibility to protect people from vulgarity and "adult" content, however, as with the Patriot Act, there is a distinction between individual freedoms and those freedoms deemed optional by the government.